INSTRUCTIONS

WHO MUST FILE THIS APPLICATION? Every person who has not previously secured an identification number and who (a) pays wages to one or more employees, or (b) is required to have an identification number for inclusion in any return, statement or other document, even though not an employer.

Only one application for an identification number should be filed, regardless of the number of establishments operated. This is true even though the business is conducted under one or more business or trade names. Each corporation of an affiliated group must be treated separately, and each must file a separate application. If a business is sold or transferred and the new owner does not have an identification number, he should not use the identification number assigned to the previous owner, but must file an application on Form SS-4 for a new identification number.

WHERE MUST THIS APPLICATION BE FILED? With the U.S. Internal Revenue Service Office with which the Federal tax returns are to be filed.

WHEN MUST THIS APPLICATION BE FILED? (a) By those who pay wages, on or before the seventh day after the date on which business begins. (b) By others in sufficient time for the identification number to be included in return, statement, or other document.

ITEMS 1 AND 2. Enter in Item 1 the true name of the applicant and enter in Item 2 the trade name, if any, adopted for business purposes. For example, if John W. Jones, an individual owner, operates a restaurant under the trade name of "Busy Bee Restaurant," "John W. Jones" should be entered in Item 1 and "Busy Bee Restaurant" in Item 2.

NOTE—If a corporation, enter in Item 1 the corporate name as set forth in its charter, or other legal document creating it. If a trust, enter the name of the trust estate in Item 1 and the name of the trustee in Item 2. For an estate of a decedent, insolvent, etc., enter the name of the estate in Item 1 and the name of the administrator or other fiduciary in Item 2. If the true name is unusually long, such as that of a partnership, it should be shown in a statement attached to this form. In such case, a short version of the name should be adopted for purposes of this form and entered in Item 1.

ITEM 5—Governmental—Check if organization is a state, county, school district, municipality, etc., or is related to such entities; i.e., county hospital, city library, etc.

Nonprofit Organization (other than governmental). Check if organized for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, educational, humane, or fraternal purposes, etc. Generally, a nonprofit organization must file with the Internal Revenue Service an application for exemption from Federal income tax. Details on how to apply are contained in IRS Publication 557.
